Looking out for YOU?

You're independent and you like it that way, but you do not have to sail alone to be on your own!

Now more than ever we must promote the benefits of fixed annuities. NAFA, the National Association of Fixed Annuities, leads the industry in promoting awareness and understanding of fixed annuities to other industry groups, consumers, and the media.

NAFA was created to provide training, education, and foster a better understanding of fixed annuities.

It is the only independent, non-profit organization dedicated exclusively to the education and promotion of these unique insurance products.

Greater public understanding and acceptance of fixed annuities as a retirement planning option means more customers for your business. Fixed annuities are the insurance your clients need to preserve their wealth and protect their income.

By becoming a member of NAFA, your membership dues will help communicate the benefits of fixed annuities for retirees and those planning for retirement. Also NAFA is fast becoming a strong voice in the fight for Fixed Index Annuities. The more agents that become members of NAFA means the stronger the organization can be on this issue.
